THOUGHT / DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Answer as many questions as you can during your group breakout session. Answer the remaining questions in your private time and ponder your responses during this week.

1. Did anything from today's lesson stand out, impact you, or challenge you? Do you agree, or disagree with the points, or statements, from the lesson?
2. What is your overall view of the Bible? Is it incorporated into your life? Elaborate.
3. Many people think the Bible is just another book. Some don't believe it is inspired. How would you explain to someone that the Bible is true, it is reliable, and it is the inspired, infallible word of God?
4. Many people don't know the Bible, therefore, they do not obey its teaching. How would you describe your obedience to God's word?
5. Many people have "head knowledge" of the Bible, but they do not have "heart knowledge" of God's word. What does that mean? Or, how do you explain the difference? How does one get this "heart knowledge"?
6. Please explain this statement: "Our relationship to the Lord is determined by our relationship to His will and that is determined by how we relate to His word."

Group coordination:

7. Are you prepared for your group's monthly (or more often) home Bible study?
8. Go over the Prayer & Contact List for your group. Remember to check on your group members frequently if someone becomes sick or in need. Pray for those on your list.
9. GROUP LEADERS: Please report to Phillip Webb how many Bible studies your group had this past month. Thank you!
